BAD MAN AGAIN AT LIBERTY.

Matt Collins Released—Legislators
Visit State Schools—Suit for Damages.

Ogden, Utah, Feb. 20, 1905.—The complaint against Matt Collins, who was arrested a week ago on complaint of P. J. Kiesel, charged with forgery has been dismissed, and the defendant released from custody. The young man was employed by F. J. Kiesel & Company, as traveling salesman, to look after their Wyoming trade. The day previous to his starting out he received his expense money and went to the hotel ready to leave the next morning, but instead he met some companions and together got on a big "game," making a slight draft on Mr. Kiesel for $15 and blew that in for champagne. His relatives came to his aid and made good the amount to Mr. Kiesel, who asked that the action be dismissed which was done. Mr. Collins has a good record and reputation here and was very much in his favor. It is stated that he has learned a severe lesson through the past weeks experience, that has taught him never to again touch intoxicants.

THOMPSON GOES FREE AGAIN.

Bad Breath Gives a Bad Character

Brings Social Ostracism and Suffering in the Keenest Degree.

Popularity is hard to gain, easy to lose. To keep one's breath sweet is paramount in business or social success, for even friends cannot conceal their aversion if your breath is foul. "Bad breath" is the inevitable result of stomach trouble, indigestion and dyspepsia," says the Smith Drug Co., the druggists, but it can easily be cured by the use of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. I found one tablet relieved the trouble, and after taking a few more, my breath was sweet and pure. Here is one case in point:

"It gives me great pleasure to testify to the merits of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. I have suffered for years and years with dyspepsia and stomach trouble. I was bothered with a sense of fullness, flatulence, heartburn, indigestion and general weakness, accompanied by vile breath and gnawing pains in the region of the heart. After taking one box of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets I found great relief and am now fully cured. I heartily recommend Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets to all who suffer with dyspepsia.—Thomas Hardwood, 317 E. Second St., Dayton, O."

Many of our townsmen may be suffering as was Mr. Hardwood, if so, we will gladly give our personal guarantee that a twenty-five cent box of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets will relieve them and we will refund their money.—Smith Drug Co., and Druehl & Frank.

per was very favorably received by the teachers.

A trio, "The Three Trustees," was rendered by pupils from Springville high school.

In the afternoon the regular topics were discussed in the several departments, and the trustees held a meeting with County Supt. Eggertsen and State Supt. Nelson.

THURSDAY'S MEETING.

At the meeting of the trustees the payment of manual training supervisor was first considered. It was decided that Supt. Eggertsen be empowered to arrange with the various districts for the payment of the supervisor.

After some discussion in which some valuable suggestions were offered by Supt. Nelson and County Supt. Eggertsen, a motion to the effect that April 1 be the date for considering the application of teachers for positions for the ensuing year was adopted.

The trustees also held a meeting against closing schools on account of contagious diseases, unless conditions actually demand it.

Supt. Eggertsen has organized a county high school section in the U. C. T. A. with Principal G. N. Child president, and James H. Walker, secretary. The section will consider high school work with a view to having such work as well as the high school to credit in the higher educational institutions of the state.

A music section has also been organized with Aaron Roylance president and John Peterson secretary. This section will consider matters relating to music in the schools.

FOURTH DISTRICT COURT.

The case of Bina Clegg vs. Wilford Holdaway, a suit for $5,000 damages for a criminal assault, is now being tried in the Fourth district court. Plaintiff and defendant are both residents of Vineyard.

In the case of the state vs. Willard Hutchings, burglary, the jury failed to agree and was discharged Saturday evening, after being out all day. Defendant is charged with burglarizing a house belonging to Mrs. Karen Jensen, living near Pleasant Grove. The person who stole the chickens afterwards set fire to the chicken house.

GARDEN CITY NOTES.

The funeral of Mrs. Ann Jones will be held tomorrow (Tuesday) from the Second ward meetinghouse. Services will commence at 1 o'clock.

The speakers at the banquet yesterday were President Stephen L. Chipman of the Alpine stake, and Elder Alfred Osmond.

R. Eugene Jones is here from St. Louis, suffering from pneumonia. He is expected to be here for some time.

John C. Graham, manager of the Enquirer, who has been in Los Angeles for some weeks, is reported in a greatly improved state of health and is expected home early in March.

Michael J. Ryan and Frank Wayne were taken to the state prison yesterday by Sheriff Harmon and Deputy Sheriff Barrett.

A daughter has been born to Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Baker, and a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Emmons.

Elder L. John Nuttall of the Sunday school Union held his year in Provo yesterday attending the Third ward Sunday school anniversary and conference. Sessions were held forenoon and evening with an interesting program at each meeting.

Albert Hurladay, who was accidentally wounded by the discharge of a shot gun on the 6th, has gone to his home from the hospital, and is considered past danger.

Some of our townsmen may be suffering as was Mr. Hardwood, if so, we will gladly give our personal guarantee that a twenty-five cent box of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets will relieve them and we will refund their money.—Smith Drug Co., and Druehl & Frank.

The city is enforcing its dog tax law, and as a result many canines are being sent to the happy land by Officer Porter, their owners refusing to pay the tax.

General Manager Bancroft and many of the lesser officials of the O. S. L. railway, spent several hours inspecting the railway situation in this country yesterday. It is hoped that they will decide to make some improvement in the local train service in the near future.

The case of Miles vs. Miles occupied the attention of the district court Friday and Saturday. The case was brought to court by a woman and lot in Paradise. The defendants, however, were allowed to retain the property.

Itch—Ringworm.

E. T. Lucas, Wingo, Ky., writes, April 25th, 1902: "For 10 to 12 years I have been afflicted with a malady known as the 'itch.' The itching was most unbearable; I had tried for years to relieve it, having tried all remedies I could hear of, besides a number of doctors. I wish to state that the single application of Ballard's Snow Liniment cured me completely and permanently. Since then I have used the liniment on all my family and it cured completely. For ring worm and it cured completely. For ring worm and it cured completely. For ring worm and it cured completely."

which was tied to overflowing with hundreds of the youths of Zion. After witnessing devotional exercises all the Alpine stake students about 100, were requested to remain. A stake organization of a president, two counselors, secretary, and six missionaries was effected, to look after the students from the stake. Some good counsel and happy remarks were offered by Presidents Chipman, Clarke and Evans, also by Elders Kendal of the High council, Bishop J. B. Hindley, King Briggs responded in behalf of the students. The afternoon was spent visiting the many devotional and social work being done to the youth of the institution, especially was this noticed in the military and domestic economy classes among the young ladies, and the blacksmithing, carpentry, woodwork etc., among the young men. It is certainly an inspiration to visit this great school, the excellent spirit and good influence which pervade the institution will well repay a visit from parents having sons or daughters or anticipating sending any there.

Health.

Means the ability to do a good day's work, without undue fatigue and to find life worth living. You cannot have indigestion, constipation, nervousness, and the liver and polluting the blood. Such a condition may be best and quickest cured by the use of the best liver regulator that the world has ever known. Mrs. D. W. Smith writes, April 3, 1902: "I use Herber's Kidney and Liver Pills for constipation and regulating the liver I ever used." Price 50 cents. Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

ARRESTED FOR FELONY.

C. D. Green Dead—Ward Conference—Indian Skeletons Unearthed.

Special Correspondence.

Eureka, Juab Co., Feb. 19.—Sheriff James B. Whitehead last night placed under arrest Charles Fredrickson, charged him with felony. The complaint was sworn to by Miss Annie Faulkner. Both parties are well known throughout the county.

Frederickson was taken before Judge David O. Lindsay, who placed him under $300 bonds, which were furnished, and the prisoner released. The preliminary hearing will be held next Saturday.

C. D. Green, who has been ill for some time past, died at the home of James Shaw Thursday afternoon. Deceased was 60 years of age and a native of New York state. The remains were shipped to American Fork for burial.

While workmen were excavating just north of Ogden, they unearthed the skeletons of six well preserved Indians from an old Indian burial ground, which had probably lain there for a century at least.

The ward conference of the L. D. S. Church is being held today, and the stake presidency are present from Nephi.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fox, on Saturday last.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Calvert are the happy parents of a little daughter who put in an appearance at their home on Feb. 12.
